LIMITATIONS ON ACCURACY AND USE OF THIS INFORMATION 1. The accuracy and quality of this National Police History Check (NPHC) depends on accurate identification of the Applicant (including aliases) according to the information provided in the Application Form and the comprehensiveness of police records. 2. While every care has been taken by CrimTrac to conduct a search of Police History Information held by Australian Police Agencies that relate to the Applicant, this report may not include all Police History Information relating to the Applicant. Reasons for this include correct name matching and the operation of laws that prevent disclosure of certain police history information. 3. The NPHC is a point in time check and should not be relied upon for an unreasonable amount of time. 4. This report has been provided on a name check basis only. For this reason it is important to provide the Applicant with a reasonable opportunity to respond to or validate the information in this report before making any decisions that may adversely affect the Applicant. 5. To the extent permitted by law, all information provided in this report is made available for use on the following conditions: a. CrimTrac makes no representation or warranty of any kind without limitation in respect to accuracy; b. The information in this report should form only one part of any process for determining a person's suitability for any entitlement, profession, undertaking, appointment or employment. 6. To the extent permitted by law, neither CrimTrac nor Australian Police Agencies accept responsibility or liability for any error or omission in the information. The information in this report has been obtained according to the following process: a) CrimTrac searching a central index for potential matches with the name(s) of the Applicant; b) CrimTrac and the relevant Australian Police Agencies comparing name matches with Police History Information held in Australian police records; c) The relevant Australian Police Agencies identifying any Police History Information held in their police records and releasing the information subject to relevant spent convictions, non-disclosure legislation or information release policies; d) CrimTrac providing a result of the NPHC to the Accredited Agency indicating that a record of Police History Information relating to the Applicant is held or not; and e) CrimTrac providing that Police History Information to the Accredited Agency.
